"No Shoes Like Sorosis."

THE BEST SHOE FOR WOMEN.

More Feminine Feet

tread the sidewalks of Broadway and Piccadily in the famous "Sorosis" shoe than any other shoe ever designed for women. In the great centers of wealth and fashion, such as London, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other leading cities, "Sorosis" has made its greatest successes. These shoes appeal to the critical taste of women who are looking for stylishness, durability and good fit, and the absolute certainty that "Sorosis" will meet those requirements has been demonstrated by the enormous sales of Sorosis to the fashionable trade of these great cities. We cordially invite the ladies of Washington to call and be fitted in the new spring styles in the handsomest shoe parlors in this country. Sorosis means best. You'll find it exemplified in the beautiful Oxford Ties and Low Shoes now being shown.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Events on the Cards for the Coming

BLAINE-HICHBORN

Quiet Ceremony at Bride's Home Early in June.

PERSONAL NOTES

The social program will be stimulated by a number of interesting events the coming week, as it is now brightened by the gossip of what may happen before the end of June. The surprises in the way of matrimonial affairs are likely to be of such an unusually interesting character that the close of the town season may be given a zest of a totally unlooked for kind. Luncheons and dinners and the Beach dance make a number of other pleasant dates the coming week, which will be further distinguished by several pretty weddings. Miss Leila Edmonston and Mr. Benjamin DeWitt Riegel will be married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the New York Avenue Church, the ceremony to be followed by a reception at the Edmonston home. The bride has been greatly feted at dinners and luncheons in her honor. Mrs. Hearst will give a reception to the National Academy of Science on the evening of April 17 to meet Mrs. Nuttall, who has recently re-turned from Russia.

Miss Martha Hichborn and Mr. James G. Blaine will be married at the residence of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Hichborn Tuesday, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Hichborn Tuesday, June 4. They will sail for Europe Satur-day, June 8, to spend two months in travel. Their residence upon their return will be in New York. The arrangements for the wed-ding will be very quiet, as only relatives will be present. There will be no attend-ants ants.
This authoritative announcement will occasion some surprise, notwithstanding the many rumors the past six months that the young couple contemplated the step. The wedding day was set during the past week and the marriage will take place with the entire concurrence of the relatives of both parties, and, as before stated, in their pres-

The bride-to-be has been considered one of the beauties of Washington society since her debut five or six years ago. Few belles have received more attention, not only in this city, but wherever she went.

Mr. Blaine, the only surviving son of the Maine statesman, was also reared in Wash-ington. His first wife secured a divorce from him thirteen years ago. Kraak, Marcus Walker, Claude Colley, John Mann, Ralph Rgart, John Alden, Wood Woodburn, Park Hutchinson, Ed-mund Brady and H. J. Redfield.

Last evening a surprise party was tendered Miss Myra V. Gordon of New York at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hess, 237 9th street southeast, by the Christian Endeavor Society of First M. P. Church. After a delightful evening refreshments

Captain and Mrs. Beach gave a largely attended afternoon tea at Rauscher's yesattended afternoon tea at Rauscher's yesterday, when they were assisted in entertaining their guests by Mrs. W. A. Beach of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Hinckley, Mrs. Mulligan, Mrs. Charles H. Campbell, Miss Sheridan, the Misses de Peyster Miss Hagner and Miss Alice Ward

Mrs. Alfred S. Gillett gave a small musical tea yesterday for her guest, Miss Mc-Culloh of Philadelphia. The latter sang charmingly, as did Miss Terry. Mr. and Mrs. Whittlesey and their daughter, at 'cello, violin and piano, played several trios. Miss Carr and Mrs. Theall presided at the tea table. Milligan of Pittsburg are in the city for a few weeks and will be at home Saturday,

Last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John T. McKeon their daughter, Miss Eliza V. McKeon, and Mr. Wyatt A. Wrenn were married by the Rev. J. B. Perry of St. Andrew's Church. Only the family and a few intimate friends was the feature of the evening.

Mrs. M. E. Newcomer and Mr.

Yeagle won the first prizes, after which an oyster supper was served. Among were present. The parlor was beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants. Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn will be at home after April 17 at 1428 M street, where they will he pleased to see their friends.

Mrs. Robert R. Heywood of East Orange, N. J., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. St. George R. Mt. Pleasant. George R. Raby, at 3205 17th street,

One of the notable events of the coming week will be the wedding of Miss Virginia Borland Wake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Wake, to Mr. Frederick Postal. The ceremony will be performed at St. Stephen's Church, Mt. Pleasant, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, after which Mr. and Mrs. Postal will leave for an extended tour south. Miss Katherine Postal, sister to the groom, will be maid of honor and Miss Edith Wake, sister to the bride, flower girl. Those serving as bridesmaids will be Miss Adams, Miss Fox, Miss Phe-sonton, the Misses Dent and Miss Simpson. Miss Hildergarde McKenna is having a series of entertainments given for her dur-ing her visit with Miss Lewis in Philadelphla. Last night the latter gave a theater party, and Miss Morton will give a card party for her Tuesday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Boucher have issued cards for the marriage reception of their daughter, May Imogene, and Mr. Joseph Hall Pilling Tuesday evening, April 23, at their home, No. 1306 Columbia road. Mrs. Alfred Darte of Wilkesbarre, Pa., is visiting Miss Karr, 215 3d street. Major and Mrs. Henry Romeyn entertained at luncheon Thursday in honor of their relative, Lieut. La Tourrette, and Lieut. Trubert, officers of the French navy, instructors of cadets, from the French ship Duguay Trouin. Lieut. La Tourrette wears the red ribbon of the Legion of Honor for bravery in battle. He has three young relatives lieutenants in the United States army, grandsons of the late Chaplain La Tourrette, U. S. A.

One of the most interesting events of the week was the annual luncheon of the local Wellesley College Club, at the Shoreham on Easter Monday. The table was beau-tifully decorated with daffodlis and Easter lilles, while the souvenirs were tastefully tied with college blue. The guest of honor was Mrs. Whitin, one of the trustees of Wellesley, who is spending a few weeks in the city. At the close of the luncheon a number of bright five-minute toasts were given by several of the prominent alum-

The Ladies' Club of the Washington Saengerbund entertained their friends at a dance last Wednesday evening at the club house. The Messrs. Minster, Levy, Harley and Hutterly contributed greatly to the pleasure of the evening by their comic songs, recitations and dances. Cards of invitation are out for the last dance of the Yoricks this season, which will be given at the Cairo on the 18th. Dr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fuller of Keokuk. Iowa, are at the Riggs House, the guests of Mr. M. A. Ballinger, father of Mrs. Fuller. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller sail for Eusome months.

The Fortnightly Euchre Club was entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. First prizes were won by Mrs. J. M. Coleman and Mr. J. M. Coleman; second prizes, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. E. Fugitt, and the consolation to Mr. W. Coleman. and the consolation to Mr. W. Coleman.

The Columbia Heights Art Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Gallaher, 1321 Rhode Island avenue, Thursday last. Mrs. Fifield read a paper on "Spanish Possessions in the United States." Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Parker entertained

Thursday evening at a dance at their residence, "Kenilworth Hall," Kenilworth, D. C. The guests were received by Mrs. Parker, her mother, Mrs. Marsh of Anacostia; Mrs. McKim of Silver Hill, Md.; Mrs. Caywood and Mrs. Benckert of Anacostia. The dancing continued until late and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present. A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening in the Church of the Reforma-tion, Rev. Dr. W. E. Parson officiating, the contracting parties being Miss Julia E. Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Ball, and Richard S. C. Caldwell, son of Dr. Caldwell of the National University. The bride roses. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Helen A. Richmond and Miss Marie L. Sanderson, both attired in pink slik mull and carrying pink carna-tions. The ushers were Harry C. Caldwell, brother of the groom; John W. Stuart, James W. Bevans and Robert A. Barr. Following a reception at their future home, 76 R street northwest, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left for Atlantic City, New York and Niagara, and will return here May 1.
